I want you to sing
Life changes on a daily basis, every minute every

Life changes on a daily basis
Every minute, every hour still we try to save it

Life changes on a daily basis
Every minute, every hour still we try to save it
But I gotta keep moving and make it
Heaven good, Lord knows life is crazy

Happy New Year people, the ball done dropped
Guess, you can say the New Year's legal Shit, my resolution was
Do everything I been doing, better than I usually does

My momma knew I was
Everything I knew I was, I was destined for greatness
I knew I would be rescued by greatness
My first album was too far fetched for the matrix
Now it's all simple, checkers and basics

21 blackjack, check for the aces
21 cats act, I'm checkin' for faces
Brought 21 gats back like them was the faces
21 gats clap left em' in braces

With his shoes tied but he never had laces
We was just trying to barbecue out there
But he started like I wouldn't start a barbecue out there
Like I wouldn't make him dodge a few out there
Good thing, the car was parked out there

Life changes on a daily basis
Every minute, every hour still we try to save it
But I gotta keep moving and make it
Heaven good, Lord knows life is crazy

Life changes on a daily basis
Every minute, every hour still we try to save it
But I gotta keep moving and make it
Heaven good, Lord knows life is crazy

Yo, I'm just trying to enjoy the fun in my life
Plus now I got a li'l son in my life
That's the one in my life that keeps me up in the night
Writing these rhymes so he can live a comfortable life

Cam got to feed him and li'l Cam
Jim got to feed him and li'l Jim
Zeke got to feed him and li'l Zeke
Now I got to feed me and li'l me

And these kids eat like li'l beasts
They grow every hour, need clothes every hour
That's why I got to make dough every hour
Do a show every hour, hit the road every hour

Two flights a day, I'm in states so far
That if you drove it'll be two nights away
Who nice as me shit blue ice on me
And when I land shit new viper gray

Life changes on a daily basis
Every minute, every hour still we try to save it
But I gotta keep moving and make it
Heaven good, Lord knows life is crazy

Life changes on a daily basis
Every minute, every hour still we try to save it
But I gotta keep moving and make it
Heaven good, Lord knows life is crazy

Yo, yo, I'm so great when I do it
I sold flame to the fluid, lit it made it my music, that's fire
Who could deny it, who could apply it
Same pressure that I do, if you could, then try it

Shit, you just tryin' to flood the pipe
I'm tryin' to apply so much pressure that I bust the pipe
And I done bust the pipe wide open 'cause
Life changes on a daily basis 'cause

I'm just tryin' to feed my family
Just tryin' to be all I can be
Just tryin' to survive these crazy streets
Times is hard but it's gonna get better, trust me

I've been struggling all my life
Makin' these songs to get these right
In studios morning till night
But I know it's gon be alright

Life changes on a daily basis
Every minute, every hour still we try to save it
But I gotta keep moving and make it
Heaven good, Lord knows life is crazy

Life changes on a daily basis
Every minute, every hour still we try to save it
But I gotta keep moving and make it
Heaven good, Lord knows life is crazy
