So she said I'm gonna be alright
I can find my way
Tunnel too the light
In the morning haze, I'll wrap you in my arms

Our breath burns in the winters mist
Ignites our eyes every moment we kiss
Confusion is lost
It's burried in our bliss

Slow down I can't take it
Soulshaping times of healing
I know you couldnt help it
I know you only feel the way you feel
I know you shouldn't hide it
Those days are done
So come with me come with me
Come with me come with me

And there are times when she's all alone
So scared too retrace back to her broken home
Still finding ways too hide behind what was her life

Heartbreaks repair with beating
Soulshaping times of healing
I know you couldnt help it
I know you only feel the way you feel
I know you shouldn't hide it
Those days are done
So come with me come with me
Come with me come with me

Out of the dark I'm feeling you more
I see your core, I see your core
I love you and you let me in
I'm soaked in your skin
I'll help you breathe again
Help you feel again

I know you couldnt help it
I know you only feel the way you feel

I know you shouldn't hide it
Those days are done
So come with me come with me
Come with me come with me

I know you couldn't help it
I know you only feel the way you feel
I know you shouldn't hide it
Those days are done
Some come with me come with me
Come with me come with me

Come with me lie with me
Love with me love with me

Come with me come with me
Come with me come with me

Come with me lie with me
Love with me love with me
Love with love...
