Visit "Friends for Life" on MotoLyrics.com

In this world of many people
You and I live and love on many lands
We dance, we fly, we laugh, we cry
The river of our life flows

Through the changing waters
A shining truth we see
We will always strive to be
Friends, friends for life

In this world of many colors
The storms of life, the joys of life move by
The dark, the light, the day, the night
The river of our life flows

Through the changing waters
A shining truth we see
We will always strive to be
Friends, friends for life
We are friends, friends for life
