Artificial

Artificial world
Artificial soul
Artificial place
Ordinary lights

In this artificial world
It's an artificial world

It's an ordinary time
It's no ordinary day
With your systematic time
In your aromatic way

In this artificial world
It's an artificial world

Tell me how can I believe
When I believe?
Can I believe
When I believe?

He's a syndicated man
With a cybernetic life
With an infoponic soul
With his crucifying kind

In this artificial world
It's an artificial world

Tell me how can I believe
When I believe?
Can I believe
When I believe?

Artificial
Artificial

Why can't I believe
Why can't I believe
Why can't I believe in you?

I'm an artificial girl
Singing over polished songs
In my stimulated voice
Weeping artificial tears

In my artificial world
It's an artificial world

Tell me how can I survive
When love's not here?
Can I survive
If love's not here?
