I think you're pretty
I think you know it
You got a boyfriend
You just forgot him that's all
For five minutes that's all
You're my best friend that's all

Divide and conquer
Train him to be greedy
Why would the person put the advantage by fair?

Will you become what other people think of you?
I hope you don't feel lonely when you're spending time with me your friend

Wish you were here with me
Wish I was there with you
I'm reaching feeling for you
I wanna be up with you again and again

We wait for each other
But we are not lovers
I picked a good time to leave
I think it made you mad

You're talking about
You're talking about what I'm saying
Now

Wish you were here with me
Wish I was there with you
If you wanna talk I think we should
But me and where don't work so good

Will you become what other people think of you?
I hope you're not too lonely when I'm spending time with my old friend

Oh oh
Yeah
Okay
Subtle indications dribble away which you don't care about

Yeah
Okay
