"Day After Day"

I have walked through the fire as an ordinary man And if I die, I die in peace, part of all that God has planned

'Cause I believe in you and the best is yet to come You've been alone it's true, daddy's work is never done

In my dreams, every night, I see the waves upon the sand
And you and I walk alone and there's a ring upon your hand

Yes I believe in you and if my prayers are answered now
I'm coming back , to you, I'm gonna find a way somehow

I'm making my way, each morning I pray for you, day
after day
I'll turn every stone, until I get home to you, day after

Where you are is all there is, the only place I want to be
And love is war and war is cold, when you're so far across the sea

Still I'm alive, still in love, I hope this letter finds you well
Through the blood, through the flames, I can hear those wedding bells

I'm making my way, each morning I pray for you, day
after day
I'll turn every stone, until I get home to you, day after

Darling you know the winds of peace are blowing (They say the answers written in the wind)

Still I can hear the fallen angels singing (Our love is stronger than the million miles that separate us)

I'm making my way, each morning I pray for you, day
after day
I'll turn every stone, until I get home to you, day after

I'm making my way, each morning I pray for you, day
after day
I'll turn every stone, until I get home to you, day after
