If you could say to me
That you'd undoubtedly be faithful to me
Then I would say to you
That I'd undoubtedly be faithful to you

After all this time
I am here to say that I would sign upon the dotted line
Can't you read my mind
That's all I've ever wanted from you

If we could share our lives, without the compromise
I'd be faithful to you
If we could gravitate, learn to communicate
I'd be so faithful to you

After all this time
(After all this time)
I am here to say that I would sign upon the dotted line
Can't you read my mind
That's all I've ever wanted from you, that's all I've ever wanted

There's never been a day when I could say
That I was falling out of love with you (Falling out of love)
And I would kiss the stars and hug the moon
For you to see that I'm in love with you, how could you be so blind

After all this time
(After all this time)
I am here to say that I would sign upon the dotted line
Don't you feel it's time
(Don't you feel it's time)
We should settle down, caress the love we have and live as one
Can't you read my mind
That's all I've ever wanted from you, that's all I've ever
wanted

If you could say to me
That you'd undoubtedly be faithful to me

Then I would say to you
That I'd undoubtedly be faithful
