Do you believe that you the only one
Who feels the hurt and pain when life's undone
You've gotta believe there's truth in everyone
Cherish the love when all is said and done
We've just begun

Through the picture window
In the photograph
Remember love forgotten
It's invisible
Falling through the starlight
Slowly feeling sound
It's invisible
Know that love surrounds you
It's invisible

Do you believe that time's are gonna change
I wanna believe but life is kind of strange
Is there a realm that we don't know about
If it's all true then we should scream and shout
And let it out

Through the picture window
In the photograph
Remember love forgotten
It's invisible
Falling through the starlight
Slowly feeling sound
It's invisible
Know that love surrounds you
It's invisible

So you left me
Out in the sunlight
But I see you
Standing in the shadows
All these people
Looking the other way
All these people
Talking to no-one
Talking to no-one

Through the picture window
In the photograph
Remember love forgotten
It's invisible
Falling through the starlight
Slowly feeling sound
It's invisible
Know that love surrounds you
It's invisible

Through the picture window
In the photograph
Remember love forgotten
It's invisible
Falling through the starlight
Slowly feeling sound
It's invisible
Know that love surrounds you
It's invisible
