You think you know me, mold in my life
Pretend you listen, show a smile
Buried in guidance, you seem to know it all
Why do you change me?
It has come this far, to be who you are

Well I don't walk like you, see who I am
I don't talk like you, see who I am
I'm somebody else
Well maybe that's why you can't see
That I'm me
That I'm me

I keep on defending the choices that I made
Forcefeed your vision
You crossed the line
Take away what's mine

Well I don't walk like you, see who I am
I don't talk like you, see who I am
I'm somebody else
Well maybe that's why you can't see

I don't walk like you, see who I am
Don't talk like you
Oh I don't walk like you, see who I am
I don't talk like you, see who I am
Yeah I'm somebody else

It is meant to be that I'm just like me
You're supposed to see, nobody else

Hmmm
That's why I'm me, yeah
