Dear anonymous
Why do you taunt me?
The war you're in is all in your head

Oh my god, it must be terrible
To be too scared to sign your name
And too ashamed to show your face
Oh, what did they do to you to make you this way?

Dear anonymous
Do you think the sun shines on everyone but you?
But can't you see I'm nobody, too?

I'm just singing into the void
Just trying to say my piece
I thank god I got no real enemies
I killed them all with kindness so we could live in peace

Dear anonymous
Too scared to sign your name, your name
