It comes around at night
It's transparent in the light
You could crush it with a finger
And you'll do it just to watch it die

Flies are feeding on someone's blood
Isn't it kind of just like love
Do they ever get enough?
Reason has no place in this vicious world

And I'm heading your way
Into your burning flame
It's the law of nature
It's the law of nature

I take what I need
Spit out the bones and seeds
Curl up with your skin to keep me warm
Reason has no chance in this selfish world

I don't listen to the preachers
I don't listen to the doctors
I don't listen to the leaders
Reason has no chance in this selfish world

And I'm heading your way
Into your burning flame
It's the law of nature
It's the law of nature

I live and breath
Always hungry for that heat, ooh, ooh, ooh

Reason has no chance in this selfish world
Reason has no chance in this vicious world

And I'm heading your way
Into your burning flame
It's the law of nature
It's the law of nature

Reason has no chance in this selfish world

Reason has no place in this selfish world

It's the law of nature

It's the law of nature

It's the law of nature

It's the law of nature
