You sang me into my dreams
So I forgave you everything
You held my hand 'til I was asleep
You checked my heart periodically

With an ear to my ribcage
You made sure I was still breathing
Then you left when I awoke
Never to be seen again

I won't give up on peace and love
I won't give up on peace and love

I don't want to be angry
It takes too much energy
It's such a waste of time

Falling off of this thin line
I just gotta get back up
Stop waiting on apologies
Everything will happen if it's meant to be

I won't give up on peace and love
I won't give up on peace and love

Don't give up on peace and love
Don't give up on peace and love
Don't give up on peace and love

I want the ice to melt
I want the sun to shine
On me and my enemies

I want us all to be happy
I want the pain to go away
I want to sleep a while
I want to think of you and smile
