In the twilight yard, we made a pact
When they took my things and held you back
Does it get you down that they turned so fast
To the west and gone, shattered like glass

We'll rise again, yeah yeah
We'll rise again, yeah, yeah

Blinding lights, I miss the modern world
All the songs I've sung, that you've never heard
Your words, my pen, we can write the end
We did everything that we wanted

We'll rise again, yeah yeah
We'll rise again, yeah, yeah, yeah
Silence will end, Silence will end

Turn the record over, and wind the clock
In our own two hand, there's a telegram
Busy signals ring and machines say

We'll rise again, yeah yeah
We'll rise again, yeah, yeah
Silence will end
