Will ever be time enough?
Or are we just too naive?
I haven't just given up
Oh God, I still believe

Is patience still waiting?
Will I wait on my knees, too?
Will I wait on my knees, too?
Will I wait on my knees, too?
Is patience still waiting?
Will I wait on my knees too?

Are you laughing at us today?
And is this just one big game?
Now cash me in while you can
We never were the same

Is patience still waiting?
Will I wait on my knees, too?
Will I wait on my knees, too?
Will I wait on my knees, too?
Is patience still waiting, too?
Will I wait on my knees too?

Come on, come on, come on, come on
Come on, come on, come on, come on
Come on, come on

Will you ever have all you want?
And are we just next in line?
Don't throw out your one good chance
You only have this time
