What you want is what you get

We knew you'd hate this before we wrote it
So listen up, we're telling you before you tell us

We're not misinformed or misdirected
Functioning on your subjective
Your hatred only fuels us on

Now how about a word or two on you?
You're an alias, an email address
We lay a lot more out than you do
We won't be part of your revolution
So listen up, we're telling you this is a business

We're not misinformed or misdirected
We'll make our own insurrection
So keep on publishing our wrongs

Now how about a word or two on you?
You're a paper fist, a faceless attack
We're not about to break like you do

We're not misinformed or misdirected
