Did you really think that it was over
When you hung up the phone and said goodnight?
Did you ever think that it'd be too much?
I can't leave without saying goodbye

So did you really think that you could take it?
Could you make it alone tonight?
I never could have hoped for anything more
Be my angel if you can, alright

You always say goodnight, yeah
(And you)
You always say goodnight

So baby did you sleep an hour for me?
How I wish I was there right now
I wasn't gonna tell you I could change things
I'm afraid I never will know how

But I don't really think that I can take it
Will I make it alone somehow?
So hold me in your arms before I leave you
I'll be back as soon as time allows

You always say goodnight, yeah
(And you)
You always say goodnight
(Goodnight, goodnight, goodnight)

You always say, you always say
You always say, you always say goodnight

You always, you always say goodnight
You always say, you always say
You always say goodnight

You always say goodnight
You always say goodnight
