[VERSE 1:]

Quiet afternoon
In the middle of this june
I'm watching raindrops
Trickling down

Creating mirrors on the ground
Reflecting memories
I have to be reminded of

I used to celebrate this season with your hand in mine
We danced
We laughed
Now I stare blankly in the air
I'm drenched and I don't care
Waiting for my sorrow to be washed away

[REFRAIN:]

But I don't expect to see
The moon tonight at all
With these skies so gray
So heavy any second it may fall

[CHORUS:]

Coz when it rains
It pours
It rains It pours
So let it rain
Let it pour
What will remain
Is yours
I am yours

[VERSE 2:]

Some things
Are better left unsaid
So I close my eyes
And surrender instead

And as I stand still
Only the rain conceal my tears

I know the thunder and the lightning
Know my fears

I'm waiting for
The promise of Your rainbow
Your love
Your embrace
Only the sight of Your face
The sound of Your voice
Will be enough to calm my storm

[REFRAIN:]
But I don't expect to see
The moon tonight at all
With these skies so gray
So heavy any second it may fall

[CHORUS:]
Coz when it rains
It pours
It rains It pours
So let it rain
Let it pour
What will remain
Is yours
I am yours
