Another night without you by my side and I wonder why the one moment when I need you the most is when I turn out the light

Cause I see your face in the distance
I hear your voice say goodnight it's just me and the silence
and another song to write

It's a song for the lovers apart feeling lonely
for the tears we cry at night
It's a song for everyones one and only
It's a lovers lullaby

Close my eyes but it doesn't feel right another sleepless night I watch the walls for another two hours then I turn on the light

Cause I see your face in the distance and I hear your voice say goodnight
it's just me and the silence
and another song to write

for the tears we cry at night
It's a song for everyones one and only
It's a lovers lullaby

I... turn on the light, sing my lullaby

I... turn on the light, sing my lullaby

It's a song for the lovers apart feeling lonely
It's a song for everyones one and only Lovers lullaby

It's a song for the lovers apart feeling lonely
I'm feeling lonely tonight
It's a song for everyones one and only

it's my lovers lullaby
