heard, seen, said and exaggerated
i respond, i defend, then i no longer tolerate it
i wonder how i look inside your mind tell me how i scored with your panel of judges tonight

can you see me? do you hear what i say to you?
when i look inside you i see something about myself
something i never knew
and it makes me want to do it all over again...
you're gonna take me on again?

a pleasant surprise, indeed, i find your eyes simply amazing
i pulled a leaf from a tree and you laughed just something wild
your smile is so crazy... so crazy

and i wonder how i look inside your mind tell me how'd i feel, was i just another good time?

when i look inside you i see something about myself
something i never knew
and it makes me want to do it all over again...
you gonna take me on again?

can you see me?
do you hear what i say to you?
when i look inside you i see something about myself
something i never knew
and it makes me want to do it all over again
you gonna take me on again?

i wonder how i look inside your mind...
