I wake up every morning
Jumping at whistles, come rain or shine
My spirit, it goes through the motions
They need a number to identify

When I look out on the horizon
I see far beyond this place called home
And every time I try to explain it
I end up feeling so alone

You don't want to walk in my shoes
Beneath all this envy green
I'm varsity blue
Varsity blue

I try to shake my daily routine
I got to escape from their watchful eyes
'Cause I'm not sure if this is about me
Or if they're reliving glory days gone by

Now when you don't want to walk in my shoes
Beneath all this envy green
I'm varsity blue
I'm varsity blue [Incomprehensible]

If I let your games ruin our relation
We build the foundation of the pedestal they put us on
And if you can, try to understand me
'Cause sooner or later this will all be gone

Now when you don't want to walk in my shoes
Beneath all this envy green
I'm varsity blue

Now when you don't want to walk in my shoes
Beneath all this envy green
I'm varsity blue
I'm varsity blue
