Woke up at noon with a headache sick to my stomach
Did I drink too much again? Where the hell am I?
What time is it really? Can't find my sweater.
What's his name again? It's sunny outside.

Lame love, I'm in lame love land.
That's where I live, that's where I stand.
That's all there is for me at noon.
That's all there is for me today.

Woke up this morning on a red couch.
Have I lost my soul, Have I lost myself.
I used to be such a romantic,
I used to be a good girl

I used to be the one, the one they love.
I think I fuck him, my mind's all blurry
I used a rubber that I remember
I guess I'm fine apart for 69

Lame love, I'm in lame love land.
That's where I'm hanging out, no regrets.
That's all there is for me in the morning.
That's all there is for me today.

Woke up at 5am, should I leave now?
His girlfriend's coming to town.
He's got to pick her up.
He loves her he says.
She's very special
How special is she that you had to fuck me?
His first name starts with B his last with an S
I should have guessed with initials like BS

Lame love, I'm there right now
I feel cool inside detached and lonely
That's all there is for me at 5am.
That's all there is for me this time.

Woke up alone on the fourth night. It's over now,
It was sweet and fast didn't know how to make him love
me,

Why can't they care anymore, what was his name again?

I have a backache and another headache

I feel lonely, I feel dirty, I feel sad, I feel so bad
I feel lonely, I feel dirty, I feel sad, I must be mad

Lame love, it's over now.

Who's next who'll fill my loneliness.
