

Julie Miller

"Orphan Train"

Visit "Orphan Train" on MotoLyrics.com

Come all you broken hearted come and lay your burden down
Come kings and queens come royalty surrender up your crown Come empty-handed come with nothing of your own to claim
Come naked poor come like a child to ride the orphan train

Come ride ride on the orphan train put your ear to the track you can hear your name come ride ride on the orphan train it'll take you all the way home

The way is narrow it is steep that brings you to the door but love awaits there to embrace your heart forevermore

Come you abandoned you forsaken friendless and alone come refugees left homesick for some place you've never known here princes paupers criminals and saints are all the same no more or less than god's beloved child aboard this
train

Come ride ride on the orphan train

Visit Julie Miller page on MotoLyrics.com, to get more lyrics and videos.