Perhaps the love we feel today
Tomorrow will be gone
Perhaps we'll leave our dreams
Far behind
But today is still today
And before it fades away
While we're together
And there still is time

Come share my life
Come share my love
While we are young
And we are free
Come share my life
Come share my love
Come share the good times with me

We laughed together
Walking through the early morning rain
For soon enough the clouds will go by
Now the sun is shining bright
Everything will be alright
Today is waiting just for you and I

Come share my life
Come share my love
While we are young
And we are free
Come share my life
Come share my love
Come share the good times with me

Yes today is still today
And before it fades away
While we're together
And there still is time

Come share my life
Come share my love
While we are young
And we are free
Come share my life

Come share my love
Come share the good times with me

Come share my life
Come share my love
While we are young
And we are free
Come share my life
Come share my love
Come share the good times with me
[To fade]
