About 700 days and ways
inside this changing mind is failing twisiting turning eyes are burning
and nothings working

are we failing?
talking cheaply
deepen feelings
no one's thinking
solving problems.
intervening
nothing is working

are we failing?
deepen feelings
no one's thinking
solving problems.
nothing is working

we are experiencing technical difficulties
we are experiencing technical difficulties
we are experiencing technical difficulties

please stand by

we are experiencing technical difficulties
we are
we are

nothings working
please stand by

introspection
leads to rejection
foolish draining sound of laughter confusion is our silent partner
and nothings working
