To some it's just another plane
Rolling up to the gate
It landed in the pouring rain
Twenty minutes late
Stopping right on the mark
And they do it every day
It's just another boring Monday morning
Just another plane

I hear the sound of those big jet engines
Shut down and fade away
The time it takes to open that door is just insane
There's someone on board I'm waiting for
It's so much more to me
Than just another plane

This can be such a lonely plane
Yeah I remember I was standing here
Tears streaming down my face
Watched him disappear
Nobody looked me in the eye
And they all walked away
Everybody cries in airports
It's just another plane

I hear the sound of those big jet engines
Shut down and fade away
The time it takes to open that door is just insane
There's someone on board I'm waiting for
It's so much more to me
Than just another plane

They say if you love someone
You've got to set them free
And let them fly away
And if he was really yours
Then he'll come back someday
There's someone onboard I'm waiting for
And he's home to me
That's not just another plane

To some it's just another gate
Rolling up to the gate
