I know a girl
She's a beauty queen
She rocks the scene
Uh-oh
All over the world
People stop and stare
She's everywhere
Uh-oh
But when she's at home
And she all alone
She's just like you and me
A regular girl
Who thinks she's the farthest thing
From a beauty queen
When there's a doubt
Just hold your head up
And everyone shout
Perfection was better
Imperfection's got you thinking
You're not worthy
Got you hiding in your room
It's got you freaking
About the person
Who you wish just wasn't you
You gotta know
So I'm gonna tell you
You're perfect

I know a boy
Who's a football star
You know you are
Uh-oh
And all over the town
People follow him
Giving compliments
Uh-oh
But when he's at home
He picks up the phone
And he's just like you and me
He's calling a girl
But he just can't dial
He's as scared as he can be

When there's a doubt
Just hold your head up
And everyone shout
Perfection was better
Imperfection's got you thinking
You're not worthy
It's got you freaking
About the person
You gotta know
So I'm gonna tell you
You're perfect

You're not alone
Everyone feels the same
Just look around
It's in everyone face
So insecure
But some of us just have to try
Keep your head high
You're not worthy
It's got you freaking
About the person
Who you wish just wasn't you
You gotta know
So I'm gonna tell you
You're not worthy
It's got you freaking
About the person
Who you wish just wasn't you
You gotta know
So I'm gonna tell you
You're perfect
You got to know (You're perfect)
And not just so-so (You're perfect)
You are a star
You know you are
Oh yeah (X5)
