Hey
We know who you are
Are you heaven sent?
Do you think that you're God?
So tell me, are you good to yourself?
Do you make yourself feel empty in your resign?

Now, here, start
Can you see who you are?
A star without a sparkle
A wish without a hope
Running in the dark
A criptic give away
A dropped dead razorblade
This queen's not welcome here

Hey
The star of the show
Cheap romancing in the neon glow
Are you crawling under your skin?
Rabbit holes can solve the riddles within

Now, here, start
Can you see who you are?
A star without a sparkle
A wish without a hope
Running in the dark
A cocaine masquerade
A chopped dead razorblade
This queen's not welcome here

When you wake from your wonderland
And you realize this frame is all wrong
You'll be all alone, alone, alone
We know who you are
Can you see who you are?
