(I need money for my hair)

I don't need no one to tell me what to wear
I'm happy just the way I am
That's why I, don't need your bad advice
You better love me and my hair

It ain't rocket science
I ain't trying to impress
But never the less don't stress
I guess you ain't ever seen someone happy in their own skin

This feeling is contagious, outrageous
Don't sell me a picture of how I'm supposed to look, new eyes
I got a good book telling me otherwise
A good book telling me otherwise

I don't need no one to tell me what to wear
I'm happy just the way I am
That's why I, don't need your bad advice
You better love me and my hair

I ain't a supermodel
I ain't trying to be, you see
My hairs naughty and my eyes ain't green
You know I'm still a winner
I could be thinner, I like my dinner
Don't sell me a picture of how you think
I'm supposed to look, no thighs
I know the men folk, telling me otherwise
A good book telling me otherwise

I don't need no one to tell me what to wear
I'm happy just the way I am
That's why I, don't need your bad advice
You better love me and my hair

Love me and my hair...

You better love me and my hair
