The land of plenty is the land of privileged
For your blue eyed culture deprived American boy
You got your dicks in a twist
And you're raising your fist
But your argument has been bought and sold
So flex that corporate muscle, with your media monopoly
While you sell out humanity
ADHD, OCD, social anxiety
It's money baby

You pushing me, I'm pushing you
No rhyme or reason, watch your television
You pushing me, I'm pushing you
No rhyme or reason, watch your television

Frat boys, military toys
All I see is white noise
Cook up my rights
Call it a holy fight, eat us for dinner

Haliburton
Now we're hurtin', easy blood trade
We all lie in the be we've made
I'll talk till I got no words left
I'll scream till my last dying breath
Can I get a witness?

You pushing me, I'm pushing you
No rhyme or reason, watch your television
You pushing me, I'm pushing you
No rhyme or reason, watch your television
