I come around
Like a little cat
First passed the lake
Imagine that
Don't leave my dish outside
I wanna eat
By the heat
Of your light

I woke up
Just a little too late
You softly walked away
Shut the gate
Don't leave my love in the dark
I still feel the beat
By the heat
Of your light

The letters I sent
Went un-returned
Like
Plucking the wings of a baby bird
I wonder where it all begins
If it will ever appear again
Come rock me to sleep by the heat
