It's too late
All the lights are out
All the kids have played
Now I've lost my way, but anyway

Heartache and pain baby
I know my name right now
And you're calling me
And I need the ground as my final place
Oh, how you love me anyway

It's a long road out of here
Don't leave the light on
I ain't coming home
You gotta be strong

It's a long road out of here
When you love me like you do
Makes it hard for me to leave you

Distance, my friends
It's closer when you reach the end
Between time and space
Oh, I can't erase, anyway

It's a long road out of here
Don't leave the light on
I ain't coming home
You gotta be strong

It's a long road out of here
When you love me like you do
Makes it hard for me to leave you

And you carry all the weight of the world in your hands
And you're given all my love you never thought you had

And all I know to believe it is closing me eyes and all my dreams
But I guess I just want to go on and on
I guess I just want to go on and on
I guess I just want to go on and on

And I guess I just want to go on and on

I guess I just want to go on and on

I guess I just want to go on and on

I guess I just want to go on and on
