Hello stranger you've been a stranger for too long Things start off so easy when you know you don't belong

As I learn more about you

As you give up your secrets to me you've been loving somebody else who's lovin another

Uh huh ahh honey is she the one you wanna hold on to
And talk on the telephone all night long
Uh huh ahh honey you seem so mixed up
Maybe that's why I like you but you're so damn young

You're such a sweet distraction
You make talking look so easy, hey
The way we argue just at the same pace
The way you say my name like you like the taste

Uh huh ahh honey is she the one you wanna hold on to
And talk on the telephone all night long

Uh huh ahh honey you seem so mixed up
Maybe that's why I like you but you're so damn young

I don't wanna I don't wanna play around with your affection
I don't wanna let you down like she did to you
I just wanna make sweet love

Uh huh ahh honey is she the one you wanna hold on to
And talk on the telephone all night long
Uh huh ahh honey you seem so mixed up
Maybe that's why I like you but you're so damn young

Uh huh ahh honey is she the one
Is she the one you wanna hold, hold, hold on
