There were beggars and kings in a magical sky
There were wings in the air and I learned how to fly
There was me, there was you in a world made for two Then you were gone

Moonlight lady, come along with me
To the bright city lights, it's all right, 'cause tonight's on
me
Moonlight lady, come along with me
To the bright city lights, it's all right, 'cause tonight's on
me

She was satin and lace on the beach
And her beauty was there to inspire
She was loving the night in the grasp Of soft lit fire

Moonlight lady, come along with me
To the bright city lights, it's all right, 'cause tonight's on
me
Moonlight lady, come along with me
To the bright city lights, it's all right, 'cause tonight's on
me

Every night is so empty without you I'm so lonely since you went away
If by chance we could dance to the music
Let it play, let me say

To moonlight lady, come along with me
To the bright city lights, it's all right, 'cause tonight's on
me
Moonlight lady, come along with me
To the bright city lights, it's all right, 'cause tonight's on
me

Seems it never rains in Southern California
To the bright city lights, it's all right, 'cause tonight's on
me
It never rains in California, but girl don't they warn ya
To the bright city lights, it's all right, 'cause tonight's on
me

Seems it never rains in Southern California
To the bright city lights, it's all right, 'cause tonight's on
me
It never rains in California, but girl don't they warn ya
To the bright city lights, it's all right, 'cause tonight's on
me
