Looking back to when I was young and free
And I owned my life and no one owned me
Someone asked if I could give her a break
When I said, "Yes," I made my first mistake

Yes, she got her break and so did I
Yes, she broke my heart for another guy
Yes, she broke my heart for another guy
For another guy, don't know why, don't know why

Too many women, yeah, yeah, too many women
Too many women, yeah, yeah, too many women

Oh, I had dreams, you see and I had plans
But I traded them for some romance
Look what I'm facing, just 'cause of chasing

Too many women, yeah, yeah, too many women

Too many women, yeah, yeah, too many women

When I see the mess that I'm drowning in
I know why I'm here after what I have been
If the truth be told I would have to say
It was worth the price, that I had to pay

Though they break your heart and make you cry
I can't hardly wait 'til the next comes by
I can't hardly wait, don't know why, don't know why
For another try, don't know why, don't know why

Too many women, yeah, yeah, too many women
Too many women, yeah, yeah, too many women
Too many women, yeah, yeah, too many women
