Someone took the key to your heart
Someone took the key to your

Could've swore I had it right here with me
Susy told me no one else could take it away (away)
So maybe I just misplaced it
Check to were it could be
But I'm running out of possibilities

See now me and him are having all these problems
Retrace my steps to see if I caused them
There's something he's keeping from me
What could it be (ohhh)

Please don't tell me
Someone took the key to your heart
Right from up under me
Tearin us apart
I got you just where you wanted
How could you do it baby
Into your heart

Kinda chilly out here on the other side
When did I turn my back long enough for her to take my place
Must of been a mix up showin in the same mistake
But if not when I see her they might lock me away
Cause now me and him are having all these problems
It don't take a genius to try to solve them
There's someone he's keeping from me (ohhhh)
Who could she be?

Please don't tell me
Someone took the key to your heart (I can't take it)
Right form up under me
Tearin us apart
I got you just where I wanted (don't you let them in noo)
Into your heart

I've called it in
I made my plan
I hope they find it right away

The missing piece means everything
What else could it be?

Please don't tell me
Someone took the key to your heart
Right from up under me
Tearin us apart (tearin us apart)
I got you just where I wanted
Into your heat
