Where did I go wrong?
Is it something that that I said?
My opinions went unnoticed
My emotions overfed

So what if I change the phase
What dreams shouldn't I've liked
I'm supporting my ambitions
My soul, my light
Got to pass the intersection

I went left, when you went right
Delivering a purpose, I'm living out my life
Just me and my decision, a million reasons why I had to fight
Just me and my decision, a million reasons

I'm a girl, I'm a lady, I'm a woman, I'm a queen
I'm everything I can dream
I'm a girl, I'm a lady, I'm a woman, I'm a queen
I'm everything I can dream

Everything I can be
Everything that I see
Everything that completes
Everything, I am me

I'm a girl, I'm a lady, I'm a woman, I'm a queen
I'm everything I can dream
I'm a girl, I'm a lady, I'm a woman, I'm a queen
I'm everything I can dream

Everything I can be
Everything that I see
Everything that completes
Everything, I am me
