I feel deceived and I cannot breath
I wanna leave but I seem to freeze
Cold heartless from the start
No love left, in the heart

I'm addicted, now I'm evicted
From this lonely [unverified]
You were drunk I didn't see
Just an addict who you meet

It's not real, no more fears
I just cannot disappear
I'm a reflection of your tears
It's your boy, and I need you near

I can't shake these lonely nights
I don't care whose wrong or right
But I know it's time to leave
When I feel we cannot breathe
I can't breathe

The other day you told me that I was your girl
I took a chance and I entered your world
Thought you were the one until you took away my pride
Now I realize, I have to pay the price

You weren't good for me
You weren't good for me
You took, took away my sanity

You weren't good for me
You weren't good for me
You took, took away my sanity

I can't breathe
(I just can't let you breathe)
I can't breathe
(I just can't let you breathe)

I was so mad, I had to get a knife
Think I'm going crazy, I think I should think twice
It ain't worth my life and it ain't worth

The things I wanted from you

I just don't know
What's he gonna do? What's he gonna say?
I had my way, now your way
I'm in pain

You weren't good for me
You weren't good for me
You took, took away my sanity

You weren't good for me
You weren't good for me
You took, took away my sanity

I can't breathe
(I just can't let you breathe)
I can't breathe
(I just can't let you breathe)

Hum, walking an' talking
Thinking about the life I lived
It's me alone, me against the world
It's me alone, me against the world
It's me alone, me against the world
It's me alone, me against the world

You weren't good for me
You weren't good for me
You took, took away my sanity

You weren't good for me
You weren't good for me
You took, took away my sanity

I can't breathe
(I just can't let you breathe)
I can't breathe
(I just can't let you breathe)
