[Verse 1]

My eyes are open in bed
There's somethin' I never said
Won't come out of my mouth
I should be thinking of you
But there's someone else instead
There's so much to figure out

[Chorus]

I thought of letting go
But my mind won't let me
My heart will never know what's true
I just never thought I'd find a reason
To keep me comin' back until I stay

[Verse 2]

When we're out on the street
There's a perfect you and me
They believe what they see
Way down underneath you're a stranger to me
I'm in this too deep, love's getting harder to keep

[Chorus]

I thought of letting go
But my mind won't let me
My heart will never know what's true
I just never thought I'd find a reason
To keep me comin' back until I stay
Keep me comin' back until I stay

My mind, my heart

Has never been so far apart
We knew from the start
It was bound to fall apart
I stay, I leave
It's never gonna change for me
Keep me comin' back until I stay

[Chorus]

I thought of letting go
But my mind won't let me

My heart will never know what's true
I just never thought I'd find a reason
To keep me coming' back until I stay

I thought of letting go
But my mind won't let me
My heart will never know what's true
I just never thought I'd find a reason
To keep me coming' back until I stay
To keep me coming' back until I stay
To keep me coming' back until I stay
To keep me coming' back until I stay
To keep me coming' back until I stay
To keep me coming' back until I stay
To keep me coming' back until I stay
To keep me coming' back until I stay
To keep me coming' back until I stay
