Your color is purple
Your food is chinese
You're a sucker for buying one and getting one free
Thursdays at 8 you watch your TV shows
CSI and Friends

These things I know

But what makes your eyes so blue?
Is it something inside of you?
What makes you beautiful?
I wish I knew
Is it your light shining through?

You're thinking about law school
You haven't made your mind up yet
You're thinking about dinner
And you're counting up the hours of sleep that you'll get
And you want to move somewhere
Where it doesn't rain or snow
And you wish you were a dancer
You think Bono's got the answers
You're a democrat

These things I know

But what makes your eyes so blue?
Is it something inside of you?
What makes you beautiful?
I wish I knew

But what makes your eyes so blue?
Is it something inside of you?
What makes you beautiful?
I wish I knew
Yeah Yeah

I know just what makes you laugh
And what makes you cry
I know when you're sad you don't have to say why

I know what you love
I know what you don't
I know when you will when you might when you won't
But what makes you you
What makes your eyes...blue

What makes your eyes so blue?
Is it something inside of you?
What makes you so beautiful?
I wish I knew
Yeah Yeah

But what makes your eyes so blue?
Is it something inside of you?
What makes you so beautiful?
I wish I knew
What makes your eyes so blue?
Is it something inside of you?
