It gotta a lot darker here
Than I thought it would
When I disappeared
It's funny how a couple of days
Can make you so afraid you float away
You're reachin your hand down now
But I can't stand myself for how I
Took it all for granted
It didn't turn out the way I planned it
But I, I won't be afraid
I'm sure I'll find a place
Where the dust and haze will clear
And the light on the shore will reappear

Watching the light reappear
Blink on, blink again
We're still standing here
Blink on, blink again
Watching the light reappear
Blink on, blink out
This flickering is maddening
But the light, the light will reappear

The light..reappear

It's gonna get more quiet here
And I want to, but I hear you, dear
You're whispering, I'm listening
And I'm happy about the fact
That we're a little stronger than the day before
Just a little longer till we reach the shore
I still hear doubt when you're not around
I'm not afraid of the clue anymore

But I, I won't be afraid
I'm sure I'll find that place
Where the dust and hate might clear
Ohhh, and the light, the light will reappear

The light reappear

Watching the light reappear

Blink on, blink again
Watching the light reappear
Blink on, blink out

Watching the light reappear
Blink on, blink out
This flickering is maddening
The light, oh light will reappear

But I won't be afraid
But I'm sure we'll find a place
Where the dust and hate will clear
And the light, the light will reappear

Watching the light reappear
Blink on, blink again
We're still standing here
Blink on, blink again
Watching the light reappear
Blink on, blink out
This flickering is maddening
Yeah
This flickering is maddening
Oh oh oh
This flickering is maddening
