If you wanna come down, we're gonna have a black party.
If you fear to hide, i'm gonna take you out
Don't worry about, always feeling rejected,
Let me be the one to hear about your worries,
Let me be the one to lead this time
If you wanna come down, she's gonna throw a black party
If you know the magic word, tell me a secret
If you feel the need to hit rock bottom,
Let me be the one to hear about your sorrow,
Let me be the oneto help you out
And if this is not enough nothing is beautiful
Ahh this is not enough nothing is wonderful,
Except waking up by your side and if this is not enough nothing is beautiful,
No this is not enough nothing is wonderful, unless you are by my side
And if this is not enough nothing is beautiful
Well this might be enough and nothing's more wonderful
Than just waking up by your side.
