Fly, fly
Fly, fly, fly

It's like I woke up and my day belongs
And nothing goes right
Hall of fame, it's like a simple song
And I can't seem to get it straight

But I'm in the world premier
And I just can't get through the lines
And everything I touch goes wrong
No matter what I try

Fly away above the clouds up in the sky
Oh why, oh why?
So I don't worry 'bout the little things in life
'Cause it's my time to fly

And I know they cannot hold me down
Fly, fly
'Cause they cannot hold me down
Fly, fly, fly

Some times are crazy in the world
It's ever weirder than it sounds
The world is my missed time
Things are easier I've found

All the world's stage
I've just got the starring role
The mountain mass in front of me
Seems like a little stone

Fly away above the clouds up in the sky
Oh why, oh why?
So I don't worry 'bout the little things in life
'Cause it's my time to fly tonight

I know sometimes it's hard to walk
When being knocked around
But circumstances, state of mind
Don't live life on the ground

I just want to

Fly away above the clouds up in the sky
Oh why, oh why?
So I don't worry 'bout the little things in life
'Cause it's my time to fly tonight
It's my time, my time to fly

Fly away above the clouds up in the sky
Oh why, oh why?
So I don't worry 'bout the little things in life
'Cause it's my time to fly tonight

And I know they cannot hold me down
Fly, fly
'Cause they cannot hold me down
Fly, fly, fly
