When will these dark clouds disappear from view When will the sun begin to shine When will I once again be near to you When will I know for sure you're mine

Dreaming of those Jamaican nights
Longing to hold you
Jamaica take me away
Take me away with you
Jamaica, I'm wasting away
Take me away with you
Jamaica take me away
Take me away with you
Jamaica, I'm wasting away
Take me away with you
Jamaica, I'm wasting away
Take me away with you

When will these dark days disappear again When will I finally see the light How long must I wait To have you here my friend I want to be with you tonight

Dreaming of those Jamaican nights Longing to hold you (Repeat rest of the chorus til end)
