Sunlight on my windowpane
Something new running through my veins
Every day is like a new beginning

It's something about the way I'm feeling
When you say you love me

Your words are ringing over and over
Changing everything I thought I knew
I know a love that's true
And it's all because of you
All because of you

I'm always wallowing in my mistakes
It doesn't always seem to go my way
You come to me and everything's okay

It's something about the way I'm feeling
When you say you love me

Your words are ringing over and over
Changing everything I thought I knew
I know a love that's true
And it's all because of you
All because of you

I fall more in love with you, with you, with you
Every time you say you love me

Your words are ringing, I know it's all changing
All because of you, of you
Your words are ringing over and over
I know a love that's true
And it's all because of you
All because of you

Your words are ringing over and over
Changing everything I thought I knew
I know a love that's true
And it's all because of you

All because of you

All because of you
All because of you
