Why does the rain fall down?
Oh yeah

I tried to find the meaning of life
Somebody told me I was looking for you
And now I know whatever I find
There is nobody who can do what you do

In so many ways, in so many days
When I was lookin' for the way to your heart
But I couldn't see, the way I should be
Somebody loving you for who you are

So why does the rain fall down?
What causes the sun to rise each morning?
Why did it take so long to give you my heart
When you gave me the meaning of life?

And deep inside with all that I have
I'm gonna love you more than ever before
I didn't know the life that I had
Would only show me how I needed you more

In so many ways, in so many days
When I was lookin' for the way to your heart
But I couldn't see, the way I should be
Somebody loving you for who you are

So why does the rain fall down?
What causes the sun to rise each morning?
Why did it take so long to give you my heart
When you gave me the meaning of life?

You understand me, you know that I need you
Your love I'm feeling inside
And I won't deny the feeling when I
Begin to understand the way you feel
For me

So why does the rain fall down?
What causes the sun to rise each morning?
Why did it take so long to give you my heart

When you gave me the meaning of life?

Why does the rain fall down?

What causes the sun to rise each morning?

Why did it take so long to give you my heart

When you gave me the meaning of life?

When you gave me the meaning of life?

When you gave me the meaning of life?
