Great when you call us
Thank you for staying with us
We missed you all so desperately
But don't blink or you'll miss me

On a street like this as it were
From the thick of Jerusalem
Is what makes you love old England
The roots of freedom are here

Say what you will about the alien
Just dig in and start with the sky
He is welcome and ever might be so
And then somehow everything seems to come out right

So let's hear it for, let's hear it for
Let's hear it for the alien

You're such a killer
Oh, just you trade that in
For tea and Jammie Dodgers
Down the Prospect and sing

On a street like this as it were
From the thick of Jerusalem
Is what makes you love old England
The roots of freedom are here

Say what you will about the alien
Just dig in and start with the sky
He is welcome and ever might be so
And then somehow everything seems to come out right

So let's hear it for, let's hear it for
Let's hear it for the alien

On a street like this as it were
From the thick of Jerusalem
Is what makes you love old England
The roots of freedom are here

Say what you will about the alien

Just dig in and start with the sky
He is welcome and ever might be so
And then somehow everything seems to come out right

So let's hear it for, let's hear it for
Let's hear it for the alien

Let's hear it for, let's hear it for
Let's hear it for the alien

Let's hear it, let's hear it for
Let's hear it for the alien
