Adam ant/marco pirroni

Well you walk the walk
And you smile the smile
You don't care who you hurt
As long as it's me

Well you play the part
And you tear my heart
You don't care who you hurt
As long as it's me

Is that any way to behave?
Is that any way to behave?
Is that any way to behave?
I'm asking

And I believe
What goes around comes around goes around
I believe
What goes around comes around
Well you talk the talk
And you smile the smile
You don't care who you hurt
As long as it's me

Well you play the part
And you tear my heart
You don't care what you take
As long as it's free

And if you think you took me over
You'd better look over your shoulder
And if you think it's all right
The guys are watching you

And I believe
What goes around comes around goes around...
