Lock up your brain because I'm here again
I'm never bored to steal your chords

Zerox machine
Zerox machine

Give me a line or a middle eight
I've got the best, so I want the rest

Zerox machine
Zerox machine

Let's get together before it's too late
Collect up the ideas and duplicate

Filling up the forms, send them off tonight
And you'll be the owner of the copyright
Of the copyright, of the copyright

Time's of the essence get your ears to the ground
However else can the hits be found?

I may look happy, healthy and clean
A dark brown voice and suit pristine
But behind the smile there is a zerox machine

I'm a zerox machine
I'm a zerox machine
I'm a zerox machine
