[Verse 1: Lil Jay]

I peep your eyes and I realize that you want us together Did me so wrong had me alone but now we'll make this better

Our legacy the best to me and greater than none other In ecstasy my style unique has you feeling a brother Our love for this not lil but big it stretch like the Atlantic No pimping now from here on out what we do is romantic

You feeling this I'm serious and I ain't never kidding
I know it's deep and hope to see that Lil Jay's who you digging

I'll pave the way for you and Jay to walk and run in this world

I'm meant for you; your meant for me no need for hard to get girl

I know you digging me I'm digging you so what's the hold up

You did me wrong alone our style is wild but still I'm tore up

So sick you made me throw up confused thinking about you

I had a crush I stayed with trust and I would never doubt you

One in a million and my feelings bout you is so gravy not one above you and I love you girl cause you's my baby

[Chorus]

I know that you be digging me my style puts you through ecstasy
and this is how it has to be so why did you do me so wrong

I know that you be digging me my style puts you
through ecstasy
and this is how it has to be so why did you leave me alone

[Verse 2: M.I.G.]

Why did you do me so wrong shawty won't you pick up the phone twenty-four hours in my zone when you hit me back I'm gone

Left me alone once again that's fucked up my closest friend Wrote love letters more than ten I'm fucked up off seagrams gin
We was in this shit to win like Jaquise this ain't no joke Walk you home right after school you met me at every show
He's my baby he's my folk you my lady you ain't no hoe Cause these hoes just want my money and that shit right there's for sho
You just let a nigga go now what I'm supposed to do Momma told me love was blind should of never fucked with you but it's cool that the news even though you gave me the blues
I'm willing to put that all aside just to get back right with you
Girl I'm a fool for your love in my eyes you are a dove God is really looking out sent me a angel from up above Tell that by the way you posted up you need a thug in you life
Fuck them sucker mutherfuckers they ain't loving you right

[Chorus 2X]

Leave Me Alone... {repeat until end}
