GOIN' HOME (Mind the Gap)

- Mary Chapin Carpenter

This morning I work up with the feelin' that I'd been away too long

All this blacktop runnin' underneath my wheels makes me feel too gone

Well I could use a lot of sleep and a little bit of time on my own

And then the sight of you just waiting for me with open arms

Chorus:

Goin' h-o-o-o-o-ome, Goin' h-o-o-o-o-ome

Now it's the middle of November and the lilies bloom by the Gage springs

Yeah, I can see us flyin' down the Craig store road like we've got wings

Turn the radio off, baby, all I want to do is hear you sing

Yeah, I can close my eyes and perfectly imagine everything

Chorus:

Goin' h-o-o-o-o-ome, Goin' h-o-o-o-o-ome

Goin' h-o-o-o-o-ome, Goin' h-o-o-o-o-ome

Bridge (1):

All the time that I been takin'

All the things I've never found

Suddenly were waiting for me

The minute that I slowed it down

Instrumental break

Bridge(2):

All the time that I been takin'

All the things I've never found

Suddenly were waiting for me

The minute that I turned around Tonight I'm gonna wish you all the things that love can bring

And then I'll climb right up and watch the sun go down on top of Reilly's hill I feel the beautiful breeze just a-slippin' in under the windowsill
And smell the perfume of the night from those lilies of those fields

Chorus:

Goin' h-o-o-o-o-ome, Goin' h-o-o-o-o-ome
Goin' h-o-o-o-o-ome, Goin' h-o-o-o-o-ome
Goin' h-o-o-o-o-ome, Goin' h-o-o-o-o-ome Goin' h-o-o-o-o-ome, Goin' h-o-o-o-o-ome (mind the gap)
